Briefing for the Young Talent Award MediaMusic Composition Competition 2020 “A party with the Kaiser Quartett”

In the 2020 Young Talent Award (YTA) Composition Competition composers are invited to write a new music composition for the Kaiser String Quartet, with or without ‘beats’.

This ‘MSH anniversary edition’ competition is about writing the most festive piece of music for string quartet (and any other means).

Deadline: June 1st 2020

10 years of MSH means an anniversary, which means time for a party (!)

Subject of the 2020 YOUNG TALENT AWARD therefore is nothing else than ‘a party with the Kaiser String Quartet’.

The participants should compose music for the Kaiser String Quartet, either with, or without tape, with, or without beats and with, or without yourself as DJ and/or effects (like live sampling).

Composers are invited to interpret the festive subject with their own (original) musical idea.

All entries should be in the form of an audio file. We highly recommend and appreciate attached sheet music, mockup files for your piece and a short written explanation of the context/interpretation of your piece.

The winning music piece will be performed by the Kaiser String Quartet from sheet music. We encourage you therefore to write for string quartet.

Participants should send all their material (audio, sheet music, and / or description) before June 1st 2020 to info@mediasoundhamburg.de

The international jury will be award winning composers Stephan Eicke and Danny Weijermans.
